Biography

Lorne by Lorne Michaels. This book's subtitle is: The Man Who Found His Way in Comedy. Lorne Michaels is the man behind the scenes in "Saturday Night Live." It is an "in-depth perspective" of his life and career through his artistic journey. We learn of the challenges, experiences, and decisions he faces. We also get a glimpse of the events that made up this show.

Fiction

Grave Danger by James Grippando (Large Print). Jack Swyteck, the legendary criminal defense attorney, returns. He must defend a single mother accused of the kidnapping of her own child. The "perilous" case is fraught with politics, and international diplomacy. His legal ability is put to the test. A story of intrigue and deceit at the highest levels.

We All Live Here by JoJo Moyes. This new novel by Ms. Moyes is a "fresh, contemporary" story involving one woman and her somewhat chaotic bended family. In addition, her career is failing, and her personal life is difficult. Can an unexpected event teach her about family, forgiveness, and love?

Three Days in June by Anne Tyler. A "simply exquisite" tale about a how a shy, introverted mother deals with the days before and after her daughter's wedding. When the bride reveals a secret about her new husband to be, the actual wedding is called into question. How will everyone navigate the wedding? A story of heartbreak, love, and marriage.

Mystery

Battle Mountain by C. J. Box. This is number 25 in the Joe Pickett series. We find the "outlaw falconer" Nate Romanowski seeking revenge and in hiding as he and Joe Pickett were almost destroyed by their enemies. Now Joe must find a governor's missing son-in-law last seen in the Sierra Madre mountain range. Will Joe have to confront Nate in this search? Will this take them to Battle Mountain?

Blood Moon by Sandra Brown. Described as ‘fast paced and complex” the mystery centers on an “unruly” detective and an ambitious TV show producer who must race against time to prevent the disappearance of a young woman before the next “blue moon.” It is a scary thriller.

Open Season by Jonathan Kellerman (Large Print). The duo of psychologist Alex Delaware and Homicide Detective Milo Sturgis are back. This time they must race against the clock to find a “twisted” killer. Another page-turner. Can these two sleuths bring this mastermind to justice? A surprising conclusion to a wild read!

Paranoia by James Patterson. Book 17 featuring NYPD Detective Michael Bennet. He must stop a killer and protect his family and fellow officers. The criminal he is after is isolated and paranoid. Another psychological thriller.

Bonded in Death by J.D. Robb (Large Print). Lieutenant Eve Dallas is back with a frustrating case. Too many unknowns in a dangerous game of “cat and mouse.” It is a story of loyalty and “treachery” as the thrills mount up.
