14 Day Books-Mini-Overviews

Fiction

Mona's Eyes by Thomas Schlessner. Ten-year-old Mona is losing her sight. She and her grandfather have 52 days to visit 52 art masterpieces in Paris museums; she must remember them before her sight is gone. It is a “touching” story about the beauty in life and the special bond between this young girl and her grandfather.

The Bookstore Diaries by Susan Mallery (Large Print). We meet a bookstore owner who finds unlabeled diaries in the bookshop lockboxes where the town's residents keep their diaries. The names have been erased. In order to find the owners, she must read these diaries. This leads to “juicy” secrets and town scandals.

Felicia's Favorites by Danielle Steel. The tale of five sisters who receive “life -changing” gifts from their mother's will. They were not expecting that the shocking contents of the will could change their lives. A “profoundly” moving novel.

History

The Last Kings of Hollywood by Paul Fischer. This is the “untold, intimate story” of how Francis Ford Coppola, George Lucas, and Steven Spielberg changed and revolutionized American movies. They created some of the most “iconic” films such as The Godfather, Star Wars and E.T. despite possibly risking all they had. We learn how these three filmmakers supported each other and yet were, at times, rivals. A “thrill ride” through the lives of these men.

Mystery

Make It Out Alive by Allison Brennan (Large Print). Another in the bestselling thriller featuring Detective Quinn and FBI agent Costa. These two go undercover to solve a series of crimes targeting newlywed couples. An “edge -of-your-seat” thriller.

The Crossroads by C.J. Box (Large Print). Book 26 of the Joe Pickett series. Game warden Joe Pickett is shot and fighting for his life as his three daughters try to discover who wanted him dead. A “riveting” emotional and exciting mystery

Jigsaw by Jonathan Kellerman (Large Print). Another with psychologist Alex Delaware and Detective Milo Sturgis, the “most beloved duo” of crime fiction.. They must investigate two crimes in Los Angeles that at first do not seem related. How the crimes are related results in a “labyrinthine” puzzle to solve.

Stolen In Death by J.D. Robb (Large Print). Another in the series featuring Lieutenant Eve Dallas. Here she must investigate the murder of Nathan Barrister, a billionaire. The murder also involves a large number of stolen treasures. What were the secrets behind this crime? A crime of passion or revenge??

I am Not the Only Murder in My Retirement Home by Craig Fergus. Meet Carol, a former serial killer, who, after ten years in prison, is now living in a retirement home. When a resident, a former police commissioner, is murdered, she is the prime suspect. And she discovers that the home’s residents include former law enforcement men and women, lawyers, and government personnel. A humorous, fast-paced story with many surprises.

It's Not Her by Mary Kubica. In this “twisty” thriller, two families at a lake resort are at the center of a “chilling” crime. Secrets and truths are exposed. Who can be trusted? A “wickedly smart” story.

Big Shot by Robert Parker. The latest installment of the Police Chief Jesse Stone series. Jesse is accused of the disappearance of a hedge fund manager, who happens to be Jesse’s enemy. Can Jesse prove his innocence? A compelling story.

Cold Zero by Brad Thor. The setting is the Arctic in this story of survival and espionage. A CIA agent and a pilot must retrieve “revolutionary” technology from a plane that has disappeared. A “heart-pounding” story of endurance as the Arctic becomes a deadly battlefield. Action-packed with twists and turns.
