There's Always Something fun Happening at Waterman Village

At Waterman Village, life is as busy or as relaxed as you want it to be. In the last month, residents took advantage of many opportunities to be out and about, make new friends, fellowship over a meal, and learn a few things.

Food and fellowship are a big draw at Waterman. The Lunch Bunch dined at the Country Club of Mount Dora, while the Dinner Bunch enjoyed Shula's in Lake Mary. There was a day trip to Oak Haven Farm and Winery in Sorrento, and everyone was welcome at the poolside cookout held at Waterman.

Residents took in a number of entertaining cultural events, including:

- An Evening with Sinatra at Waterman Village
- "Don't Dress for Dinner" at Ice House Theater in Mount Dora
- Hawthorne Concert Series in Leesburg
- Heading to Lake Mary, music lovers were treated to an epic Battle of the Big Bands, which featured the Glenn Miller Orchestra vs. the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra
- Atlanta Youth Singers Concert at Waterman Village
- "The Odd Couple," performed by the Waterman Village Players
- and the very funny "Late Night Catechism" at the Mount Dora Community Building

We all know it's important to keep learning, and a number of Waterman residents signed up for an eight-week fitness class and a women's six-week cooking class that began last month.
