

Is Respite Care at Bridgewater Right for Your Loved One and You?

Is your loved one not quite ready to return home after their short-term stay at a rehabilitation/nursing care facility?

Do you need a break from being a full-time caregiver?

Would you like to try out Assisted Living for your family member?

Discover how the Respite Stay program at Bridgewater Assisted Living can help you and your loved one live your best lives! Since 1992, Bridgewater Assisted Living has been a part of Waterman Village, a not-for-profit, locally managed and incorporated retirement community. And like the charming city of Mount Dora, Bridgewater is someplace special. Come for a visit and see what make us so unique.

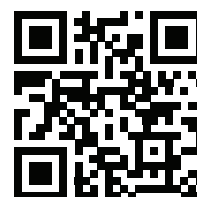

Respite Stay at Bridgewater includes:

- Assistance with medication and bathing
- Three meals a day in a restaurant style dining room
- Activities, social events and outings, fitness classes, spiritual wellness
- Laundry/housekeeping services
- Basic cable, utilities (except phone) and common wi-fi
- Transportation to medical appointments
- Routine safety checks and service call pendant
- Beauty/barber services
- Nurse available 7 days a week
- Patients in Hospice care accepted on a case-by-case basis
